AINSEVAIN'S WINE BITTERS;

CAINSEVAIN'S WINE BITTERS; OR. California Vermouth.—These Bitters are obtain ing a wide-pread celebrity in ail parts of the State. It is sufficient evidence of their great merit to observe the large quantities shipped by our principal Wine Merchants to every part of the country. Sainsevain, however, like ail other manufacturers of new and valuable articles, has to contend with unscrupulous parties, who are introducing a spurious mixture purporting to be his Wine Bitters, which noxious compounds are put up in the sains explicit hoxious compounds are put up in the sains explicit hoxious compounds are put up in the sains explicit brand. We call attention to this fact so that our citizens may be upon their guard, and that when they ask for Sainsevain's Bitters, see that they get them. As pure Wine is destined to drive from use all alcoholic decoctions, so these Bitters will soon take the place of the adulterated preparations which now flood our market. Those dealing a pure and agreeable tonic should try Sainsevain's Wine Bitters or California Vermouth.

We have appointed W. H. OLIVER, of Victoria, V. I., so be our Sole Agent for the Biritish Possessions.

We hail with pleasure the intention of the Assembly to discuss at an early day the advisability or non-advisability of postponing for a year the instalments due on Crown Lands. Since the present session commenced a suggestion was made that the payment of the interest due on instalments by our small farmers should be postponed. That suggestion was very good as far as it went; but it did not go far enough. Our small farmers in many cases have sustained too great losses during the past severe winter them from an immediate payment of interest. Something more has to be done. They will soon be again liable for taxes. Instalments will likewise fall due So through being embarrassed by loss of stock-the sale 2 which was intended to meet their liabilies to the Government-they will be very eard pressed indeed to meet such demands punctually. We are even assured that some who have lost their stock will find it extremely difficult to put in a crop. We are persuaded that many will find it hard enough to scrape together enough to meet their Under such circumstances it would be cruel to press settlers and thus still further embarrass their farming operations by insisting on the immediate payment of their instalments into the provincial treasury.

We cannot learn that any disposition has been expressed to insist on the punctual payment of instalments as they fall due. But as no provision has been made to de. for the payment, the settler will have no guarantee that he will be exempted. Though the Government were fully disposed to act leniently and afford terms, yet the debt would hang over the settlers' heads, without a public assurance that they would not be called upon at an unprepared moment Such a damper would, under the difficulties of settlers, be still harder to struggle with. But to encourage them-render them buoyant-relieve them from a sense of pecuniary embarrassment, a public guarantee that no settler would be asked for instalments for a year, would be a great boon, and certainly go a long way to lighten the losses entailed by a severe winter. Another thing, a publie postponement would prevent any hage gling or bargaining about the time of payment; and that would be a great point gained; not only as to loss of time in renewing articles, but in many other ways. It would encourage a healthy independence in the settlers, who would accept and act upon an extension of time as a matter of right, and not regard it as a particular favor only obtained after hard bargaining. The non-payment of instalments would in nll probability interfere to some extent with the financial schemes of the Government. To what extent we have no means of stating. Yet whatever it may be, it can only be a slight disarrangement in the Government finances, Such occurrences are always frequent, and in all new countries are expected to arise when dependence has been placed on instalments from Crown lands. In the financial explanation offered to the House, it was stated that a very small revenue was expect ed from Crown Lands this year. That included all who were or would be taxed to pay instalments in 1852. We however have only referred to relief to the actual settlerthe occupant and cultivator of the soil. If that class be exempted the main point will be gained. So far as relief to large land-owners or land-speculators are concerned, we are not aware whether they want an extension of time or not. We should hardly think that they would; whilst we somewhat doubt the propriety of any extension of time except to the actual cultivator of the soil.

Dissolution of the Assembly Impending

We have alluded before to the crisis brought about in the Assembly by the refusal to vote the supplies to meet the expenses of collecting the Real Estate Tax, except the Assessors for the town were removed. The way the mat er stands there is no honorable way for the Government or : ppo-sition to get out of it, except by the dissolution of the Legislature. The Assessors for the town have had certain reflections cast upon them by a vote of the Assembly. If the Government tries to compromise the matter by removing the Assessors, it will publicly anknowledge that it has appointed improper men to an important office. The Assess will then stand charged with unfitness before the country by both the Government and Op osithe country by both the Government and Op osition. Now no Government with a spark of honor can thus treat its servants, even did the law rishes Gove neart to remove them, which it does not. Netter can the Government no Opensiion expect the Assessors to 1.8 An Y u. E. Iy and by so doing blast their own repeather, and suppose that the Government recurses their own act. If we go a step farther, and suppose that the Government recurses for move the Assessors and persists in allowing them to fixish the tax rolle, then the Government flis in the face of the constitutionally expressed opinion of the country at recorded by a view of the Assessors for local and dome aglitation that cauld oal; end in one way-against the government. Any portion that the government may take will be a dilemma from which there is no honorable way executions, step from which there is no honorable solution.

Neither can the Opposition retract one step without disgrace—w thout dishonor. Nothing but the removal of the Assessors—a thing the G-variance annual honorably do—can authorise them to reconsider their vote. They cannot compare mise the matter in anyway. There is no such thing as an honorable compromise possible. No member of the Opposition can honorably accept the epipointment of one new Assessors and let the present Assessors remain in office. Such would be accepting the same men as fit Assessors against whom have been levelled certain charges. There

The Death of James Marshall.

EDITOR BRITISH COLOSIST :- It is due to the memory of James Marshall that the statement given by you 'ouching his "hard drinking' should be quidified. In a letter written not a month ago, he says to his sister, "I have a place at present in a private family. It is much better than a hotel or restaurant, but the pay is not so good, but it does you more good; much temptation in the others to drink, and that does not suit me a bit. I have bought a new suit clothes to go to church in that cost me thirty too great losses during the past severe winter of clothes to you that and ding well or better at to reap much benefit merely by relieving dilars, so I think I am diing well or better at to reap much benefit merely by relieving least." Those remarks, together with the fact that Marshall was an excellent servant and always did his work thoroughly well until severe sickness came upon him, proves satisfactorialy to me that he was not a hard drinker.

If it be asked "what then caused his sudden death?" I answer, long standing disease terminating in putrid sore throat. In a letter to his nating in putrid sore throat. Of this c.ld he had constantly spoken from the time he entered my house. About three week's ago he complained of sore throat, had it examined by a Dr. Clerjon and took some simple medicine. As it become worse I gave Marshid a week's holyday, and he left my house with c?l. so that he might have rest and change of air. He lodged at the Metrop distan, where I find his house were early and his conduct unexe pilonable. For a few days health impoved and there so med every hope of speedy and complete restoration. HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

FRIDAY, April 4th, 1862.

House met at 3:15, p. M. Present, Speaker Helmeken, and Messrs. Ring. Burnaby, Trimble, Coles, Tomie, McDonald, and Cary.

Mr. Burnaby gave notice that on Monday, 7th April, he should move for a report of all transactions under the Land Registry Act, from the opening of the Registry Office to date.

ESTIMATES.

House in Committee of Supply, Mr. Burnaby in the Chair.

the Chair.

The Chairman announced that the only item to be considered in the Estimates was that of office contingencies, 6501, for which purpose was voted dast year.

Mr. Helmcken moved that the sum of 500l. be voted for office contingencies. Carried.

The Committee then rose and reported the Estimates complete; the sum of 22,351l. had been voted, which was 3,355l. less than the sum contained in the Estimates when originally laid before the Mose.

fore the House.

It was decided that the Committee of Supply should remain open, although Mr. Cary remarked that no revenue could be collected for want of Assessors; to which remark Mr McDonald made answer, that if the Executive would but appoint the right kind of men as Assessors, the revenue would come in fast enough.

Police Court

In the Police Court yesterday several interesting cases came up for disposal. The first was

A GUNNY BAG CASE.

Wm. Copperman, Indian trader, was accused by Peter Jones of receiving five gunny bags, valued at 20 cents each, knowing them to be stolen. Mr.

Peter Jones of receiving five guinty oags, values at 20 cents each, knowing them to be stolen. Mr. Ring defended Copperman, and Peter being called to the stand gave his evidence in a style much resembling the following:

Peter—Desc are my pags; I knows dem pecause of de saw-dust in dem. I uset dem all te time to carry saw-dust in. I also knows dem py the sewing and py dis hole. Mr. Ring—You know them, then, by the whole sewing? P.—No, sare, I knows dem py de hole and de sewing; I pought de twine from Mr. Lenevue. Mr. Ring—You know them, then them? Yes, sare, I was the dust in them? Yes, sare, I we have to be so particular; but you mean? Peter—was it you who gave Copperman into custoay? Peter—Custody I don't understant you, sare; speak straight, sare, for I can't understant only common trans-tane. Mr. R.—Did you have him arrested? Peter—Yes, sare, I went dere, wiz a officer and we looket at te pags, and I saw tey was mine. Mr. R.—How did you know they were yours? Peter—Let me talk some myself, sare, you wants to talk all te time; I pesy your pardon, but I wants to dell how it happent. Mr. Copperman he lent me pags two tree times and I always took dem pack; yestraday I mist my five pags and I went to every house in Victoria to look for dem; but I no find dem in Victoria to look for dem; but I no find dem in Victoria to look for dem; but I no find dem in Victoria to look for dem; but I no find dem It happens it happens it happens it happens it happens or tree times and I always to k dem pack; yesteraday I mist my five pags and I went to every house in Victoria to look for dem; but I no find dem Den I goes to Copperman's house and looks apout and I see te five pags, and I say 'Copperman, you got my sacks, what you say, ch?' and he say, "Den is mine, sure;' and I say 'they are mine, sure; see de hole, and de sewing, and de twine, and de—de—fringe!" fringe pag" in both hands and regarding it with a look of affectionate interest for a moment, amid to as of laughter, yes, my "levettle fringe pag."

Messrs. Rhodes, Burnaby, MeKay and Lenevue were called as witnesses to prove Copperman!

Messrs. Rhodes, Burnaby, MeKay and Lenevue character and gave him an excellent name. They also thought it impossible that any person could itentify the "pags." by the peculiarities the complainant had alluded to, and Mr. Rhodes testified to selling quantities of the twine by which Peter swore he identified the articles, to many dealers in town besides Mr. Lenevue.

Wm. Morton swore to using the bags all winter and identified to the "levelle fringe pag" and one that was sewed with rope.

The accused made a statement to the effect that the pags might belong to Peter for all he knew, but they were doubtiess left there in return for some Peter had borrowed from him (Copperman) to giving up the "pags;" they were not worth talking about.

The magistrate said that the evidence was insufficient to warrant a conviction, and therefore the case was dismissed; but as there was a probability that the property was Peter's, he would allow him to take them, and so Peter, with tears standing in his bright eyes, and satisfaction exhibited in each lineament of his face, gathered up the pags, his "leede fringe pag," among the number, and joytully departed.

Joseph Harper was placed in the dock for knocking down and assaulting an Indian on John son street, on Thursday night. The secused said that about a week ago a squaw had stolen a woollen muffler from him, and that on the night in question he met complainant on Johnson suret, with the muffler about his neck. "I took it away from him," said Harper, "and he fell down." Joseph was fined 40s, because the Indian "fell down," and having paid his fine like a man, he was allowed to d-part.

ASSAULTING A SQUAW AND TRYING TO CUT. Richard Hovey appeared in the dock for as-down, and having paid his fine like a man, he was allowed to depart.

ASSAULTING A SQUAW AND TRYING TO CUT.

Richard Hovey appeared in the dock for assaulting a squaw on Thursday night, and for attempting to cut with a kinife a white man named Stout. Stout testified that he saw he accused pulling the squaw about, and remonstrated with him. Hovey replied, "she belongs to me!" Some other words passed, and Stout walked away with the woman, but was followed by accused, who told him that he would cut him. Witness removed on prisoner's making a blow at him with a knife. Another witness said that he saw Hovey with the knife in his hand, and that it "made him yump."

He was fined £3 for the assault on the squaw, and ordered to furnish security to be of good behavior for six months.

GIVING LIQUOR TO INDIANS.

The last case was that of two elderly men, apparently laborers, who were arrested on a charge of giving liquor to Indians. Their names are William Lynch, and John Page, and both looked old enough to be engaged in some more respectable business. Sergeant Blake made the complaint, having seen Page drawing the "creetur" out of a lutto blue keg.

Page.—Your Honor, I never gived licker toan linju in my life, and what's more I never will, I've been nine years on the Island. I was going home with Mr. Lynch, here, when I felt tred and I went into the ranch and laid down to rest; I had this little keg with me with a gillion of licker for which I paid §3. I am workin, for Mr. McKenzie, and I have to take a little drop occasionally to freshen me up like, when I'm workin nights; besides, its awful coid o'nights, and a leiver took grog into an Injin's house, and if it swings clear this time, it'il be the last. As for my giving an Injin grog, its all humbug, I likes it myself two much to give any of its away!

The magistrate told the accused that they were subject to a penalty of £100 or one year's imprisonment with hard labor.

Page—Well, your honor, if that's so, I kin work it Yout, but the money I hain't got nor can't git.

THE "ENTERPRISE."-This fine steamer, flying the British flag, left yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock, for New Westminster, with about 50 passengers and considerable freight. The following liberal translation of a "leader" in the Garden of News, an Arabic paper, published at Beyroot, gives a curious idea of the social system of Mohammedan countries. It reads like rather a tame chapter out of the Arabian Nights:

The public is aware how assiduous is his Highness, Ahmed Pacha, in seeing to the order and well being of the inhabitants of the city, and how that he makes every effort to promote the prosperity and comfort of those under the shadow of the Sublime Porte.

Among other instances of the care he has Among other instances of the care he has for the order and quiet of the city, we may mention that he has a regular custom of going out into the city under the protecting wing of night, in various disguises, to prevent his being recognised by the beholders. Thus incognito he patrols through the stree s of the city, and stands at the cross roads to investigate in person the cause of disorder, and the property and of peace and and to see to the preservation of peace and

Whilst wandering thus on one of these rights, he passed one of the houses, and heard the voice of a child crying most violently, there being apparently, no one to mind it. After having waited some time and the avering still continue he went to mind it. After having waited some time and the crying still continuing, he went up to the door of the house and began knocking; but, thunder away as he liked, no one came. At last, after a considerable time, the people of the house came down, and a man and his wife appeared at the door. On his Highess inquiring what was the cause man and his wife appeared at the door. On his Highness inquiring what was the cause of the child having cried thus viole tly, they informed him that they had slept so heavily that they had never heard it. His Highness warned them not to let this occur again, and advised them, if they slept so heavily, to have some one to strend to their child child another night, having gone out he passed by some gardens, and observing a crowd of people sleeping in a miserable hut, with neither door nor window, he approached and called out to them, and inquired who they were. They informed him they were some of the sufferers in the massacres; and some of the sourcers in the massacres, that on his asking why they slept in such a place as that, they replied that that was the only place they had hall given them by the government to live in. STRENGTHEN THE SYSTEM -The best means STRENGIBLEA THE STATEM —The best means of imparting vigor to the broken down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

DR. HOSTETTER'S FIGURACH BITTERS.

Debility, from whatever cause a seing, may be cured; strength. In whatever manner it may have been wasted may be induced by the use of this power ut and healthul invigorant. For indigerion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific. Hold by druggists and dealers every where.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are undeniably the finest Medicine in the world for Biliousness and Indigestion. In all cases of deranged stomach, determination of blood to the head, bile, sick headache, liver and stomach complaints, the re is no medicine known that will give such immediate relief as these renowned Pills; young and old, rich or poor, patronise them, and so many cures are effected by their use, t at their praise is sounded from the temperate climate to the frigid zone; in truth, persons who travel consder them a necessary requisite. During the overland Journey to India, the blood becomes overheated, the liver torpid, the skin covered with prickly heat, and the whole system languid and exhausted. Notning so soon gives roliet as Holloway's Fills.

ASTIMA.—From Rev. D. Letts, Frankfort, Ill.:
"An old lady of our acquaintance has been greatly afflicted with Asthma for many years, and has tried a multiplicity of prescriptions, with little or no effect. My wife sent her a part of a box of the 'Bronchial Troches,'—after a few days we heard that she found great relief from their use, and today she sent a messenger some five miles to procure more: we had only one box left, but could not relines it." "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Cough Lozenges, are sold throughout the United States.

BILIOUS AFFECTIONS—Are speedily removed by the use of Dr. D. Jayne's Sanative Pills. The test of 30 years' use has proved them superior to all other remedies for the cuire of the various diseases for which they are recommended. In their action they are mild and certain, and may be taken at any time without risk from exposure, and on this account they are invaluable to the miner, as they may be taken without necessitating a discontinuance of work, even though the latter should be in the winder.
